

Co-precipitated gel

Co-precipitated gel is a mixture of more than one chemical compounds or substance (e. g. hydroxide or salt) which are precipitated together usually and preferable in special apparatus - crystallizer.